

From the big to the small, Bearkats around our beautiful campus continue to be an allowing us to grow, tutors in the academic success center helping us through school, or just a friend buying you a coffee to help you get through the day, SHSU Bearkats know what the measure of a life is. We live our motto without even trying. That's the beauty of being a Bearkat.