Policy vedngf due to following concerns are addressed by the Provost.

1. If graduate students are paying but 9 month faculty are not on campus or available in the summer, then they are not able to get support from their thesis/dissertation committees.
2. This is challenge for graduate student advising since different graduates have joined the university when the catalog has said different things.
3. This puts unnecessary financial burden on graduate students.
4. Concern about making this a unilateral policy. Should be determined by college.
5. Concern about the justice of the policy.
